

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the President Iraq to discuss results of regional tours and stresses its importance to present the Iraqi reality

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met with His Excellency President Barham Salih Monday, 7/1/2019

His eminence with President Salih discussed results of his recent regional tours, and stressed the importance of regional and international meetings and tours to introduce the new Iraqi reality and victories achieved, pointed out that the security of the region starts with the security and stability of Iraq.

His eminence reviewed with President Salih latest developments in the political situation in Iraq and the completing the government cabinet, and the need to resolve this issue as soon as possible in order to start services provision and implementing governmental service and development program.