

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with Khaled al-Obeidi to discuss latest political developments and results of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance institutionalizing

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad, received Dr. Khalid al-Obeidi Tuesday 22/1/2019. His eminence with Obeidi discussed latest developments in the political situation, and the future prospects of Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, stressed that institutionalizing the alliance contributes to the stability of political situation in Iraq. His eminence stressed the need to complete the government cabinet and appoint competent ministers capable of achieving the aspirations of the Iraqi people. His eminence stressed the necessity of openness to the political powers and communicate with all, reiterating his support for the government of Mr. Abdul Mahdi to implement the government program for service and development.