

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim calls to consolidate the concept of role model and acknowledging successful officials

A call, that is considered a first of its kind, head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, called to distinguish successful officials, and establish the principle of role model, a gesture to motivate decision-makers to show more in service of the people, called for acknowledging all officials or members of any legislative and executive sides in service, education, economic, social, and even military departments, whom of which showed outstanding efforts and success in performing duties and invested diligence and service while assuming their responsibilities in their positions.