

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives the representative Korean president and stresses the need to enhance security and economic cooperation

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received the special envoy of South Korean President, Mr. Pyeongdo Han and accompanying delegation on Monday 15/4/2019

His eminence discussed with the Presidential Envoy developments in the situation in Iraq and the region, and means of enhancing bilateral relations on all fields, stressed Iraq's openness to the countries of the world and building balanced relations with all, and possibility of building economic partnerships, especially with South Korea.

His eminence praised humanitarian support presented by South Korea as well as contributing fight against terrorism and security cooperation, stressed the need to benefit from Korean expertise and training Iraqi medical cadres or in other levels.