

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives al-Fayadh and stresses the need to maintain community security

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received national security adviser Mr. Faleh al-Fayadh on Saturday 20/4/2019. His eminence with Fayadh discussed the latest political and security situation in the country and completing the ministerial cabinet.

His eminence stressed on the importance of expediting up the completing the government cabinet and the selection of personages according to the criteria of competence, professionalism and managing capacities to implement the government program, stressed the need to secure liberated areas and roads linking them, and eliminate enclaves of terrorist Daesh, and develop the intelligence in the security system of Iraq. On the other hand, his eminence stressed the need to maintain community security in cooperation with the relevant institutions.

