

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls for combating corruption in a realistic manner and achieving social justice

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, and at his eminence office in Baghdad during commemoration of the Day of the Feyli Martyr Saturday, 27-4-2019, his eminence stressed that the current time requires focus on restoring people's trust in the state, and away from despair and frustration, and closing the gap between the people and the political powers, and building the state and institutions, respecting the rule of law and combating corruption in a realistic way.

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim also stressed the importance of community building, reviving values and norms and to exclude society from any advocacy that distort its moral structure, and stressed the need to achieve social justice, and that the people feel justice in distribution of opportunities, wealth and resources.

His eminence also stressed the importance of the national project, overcoming sectarian and ethnic entrenchments, promoting civil peace, criminalizing sectarianism and racism, and developing and consolidating regional and international relations on the basis of respect to the sovereignty of Iraq and with taking into account the interest of Iraq. His eminence also called to honor the Feyli community, support them and redress their inequities, affirmed that he is making vigorous efforts to achieve this, called for the start a center to archive the sacrifices and heritage of the Feyli Kurds to be documented and introduced to future generations.