

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim recalls the Camp Speicher massacre and urges doing justice to families of massacre martyrs and identify the perpetrators

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, recalled the fifth memory of the Camp Speicher massacre, which claimed the lives of thousands of young Iraqis by the treacherous, obscene hatred during June 2014 setback.

In an official statement issued Wednesday 12-6-2019, his eminence recalled this Iraqi grief and urged the legislative and executive authorities to redress victims of this massacre, uncover its circumstances, identify the perpetrators and bring them to justice to receive their punishment. And also called on international humanitarian and human rights organizations to document this calamity as a terrible crime that make blood run cold.
