

On the memory of sufficient jihad fatwa, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim urges to document the humanitarian dimension of the fatwa

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, expressed his great pride and honor on the memory of issuing sufficient jihad fatwa by the supreme religious authority. His eminence considered the fatwa a decisive step that changed the balance of the battle against Daesh terrorism in favor of Iraq and its people. His eminence in an official statement issued Thursday 13-6-2019 urged political, media, research and academic actors to document the humanitarian dimension of the great epic that Iraqis had achieved and turned into a miracle.

Sayyid al-Hakim pointed out that the fatwa had humanitarian aspects in included sheltering displaced families and providing care for the families martyrs. His eminence also stressed that the blessed fatwa contributed in guiding the compass of the just battle to nationalism while the advocate of evil wanted the battle to be pure sectarian. His eminence praised the response of all religions, ethnicities and components of Iraq to that blessed call.