

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls on leaders of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance to elect a new head of Alliance

Head of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, on a tweet called on leadership of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance to elect an alternative head of Alliance according to the rules of procedures.

His eminence indicated that the Al-Hikma National Movement had chosen the constructive constitutional opposition side and will practice it in word and deed, commended the great confidence granted to him by the leadership of the Reform and Reconstruction Alliance to assume the presidency of the coalition over the past period, and expressed his hope that his tenure was best performed professionally and responsibly, and wished all the best and success for the Alliance, allied powers and its new president.