

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with envoy of the Palestinian President to discuss latest developments in the Palestinian Issue and political reality in the region

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received envoy of Palestinian President, Mr. Nabil Shaath Wednesday 26/6/2019

His eminence with Shaath discussed latest developments in the Palestinian issue and the political situation in the region.

His eminence pointed out that the Palestinian issue remains at the top of priorities and can not be relinquished, stressed the need to support the political powers in Palestine enabling them to achieve the Palestinian state that cares for all, as well as uphold the right of return for Palestinian refugees, indicated that the region is going through a state of escalation that is not in the interest of all, called for the need calmness and adopt the logic of dialogue to resolve disputes.

Regarding Iraq, his eminence emphasized that Iraq had made great strides toward stability and is in a the process of establishing constructive opposition through the action of the Al-Hikma National Movement that seeks to assess and monitor the government performance and the completing wings of democracy.