

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim holds the security forces responsible for protecting the people advocating their legitimate rights

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, considered security sides accountable for protecting the citizens, especially those advocating their legitimate rights, demanded the legislative and executive authorities to listen to the demands of protesters. His eminence indicated that government neglect and disregard to the demands caused targeting and attacking protesters' gathering places, which led to injuries. His eminence expressed solidarity with the protesters and their demands, stressed the need to invest their promising energies and do justice to their efforts offered through years of endeavor, diligence and study to serve their country Iraq.