

Sayyid Ammar Hakim congratulates Tunisia success of presidential elections and winning candidate Kais Saied

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, telegraphed the Republic of Tunisia, congratulating the success of the presidential elections and winning candidate, Professor Kais Saied as seccessor of the late leader Beji Essebsi.

His eminence considered that the success of the elections and providing a competitive atmosphere among the candidates in two phases showcases the maturity of the democratic experience in Tunisia, praised the role of social groups, especially youth, in the success of the practice.

His eminence stressed strengthening relations between Tunisia and Iraq, wished Tunisia people and political powers further progress and prosperity and forming a government capable of achieving the aspirations of the Tunisian people.