

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: the demonstrations are a positive shock in the body of executive and legislative authorities

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, emphasized that people's demonstrations for demands witnessed in Iraq, had resulted in a positive shock in the body body of executive and legislative authorities and awakened them to not take the patience of the people for granted and considering the people's dire need for a free decent life, and attributed all current reform steps carried out in the parliamentary, governmental and judiciary systems, to the sacrifices of the demonstrators and their high voices, patience and determination in squares of demonstrations.

His eminence tweeted: "From here we forward our gratitude and appreciation to all patriotic peaceful demonstrator citizens whom had shouted their voices and demands asking for rights that was wasted over corruption and political disputes".