Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem offers condolences to Egypt over trains colliding in Sohag

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Iraqiun Alliance, offered condolences to the Egyptian people over the train collision in the city of Sohag.

His Eminence tweeted on Saturday, March 27, 2021, "Our deepest condolences and sympathy extend to the brotherly Egyptian government and people, following the unfortunate accident in the city of Sohag following the collision of two trains,"

His Eminence expressed solidarity with the families of the victims, asking Allah Almighty to inspire them patience and solace, grant the wounded a speedy recovery, and protect the brotherly Egyptian people and all our Arab and Islamic peoples.