

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem Calls to intensify Intelligence Efforts, Fill Security Gaps, Address Security Breaches

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Iraqiun Alliance, called to intensify the intelligence efforts, filling gaps, and addressing the lax security breaches. On Saturday 5/1/2021, His Eminence said, "The recurrence of security breaches and the martyrs and injuries they left in the ranks of the army, security forces, the popular mobilization forces and the Peshmerga, the last attacks which happened in Tarmiyah, Kirkuk, Diyala, and Al-Anbar. This is a reason to address the security file objectively to commensurate with the size of the challenges. We call on our security forces to intensify their intelligence efforts, fill gaps, and address Lax Security breaches.

His Eminence Stated that lax security is a target for terrorists; they abuse it to conduct their satanic aims. Their attempts to mix the files and fuel sectarianism must be eradicated.
