

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem: Workers Equity is Society's Equity; International Labor Day

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the Iraqiun Alliance, considered that equity for the workers leads to a fair to society. His Eminence tweeted on Saturday 5/1/2021, "On their International Day, we renew our stand and our solidarity with the working class in their lawful aspirations and ambitions, and we feel their suffering and endeavors for a decent living, and we reaffirm on Their equity, as it represents a just society, by launching a bundle of discreet scientific measures and plans to benefit from the capabilities of the working class in building the homeland, calling for reform of the work environment as an important first step to absorb the youth capabilities and re-start the government and private sector factories operations.