

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem calls to maintain peaceful demonstrations, detect those with hidden agendas

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, expressed his hope that peaceful demonstrators would be able to preserve the peacefulness of the demonstrations and isolate and detect those with agendas that want to harm the demonstrations. An act guaranteed by the constitution, and that the leap of the youth to demand their rights is a source of pride. As it indicates that our people are alive and will not give up their rights, especially if it relates to capturing the killers of demonstrators and activists, the most recent of which is the martyr Ihab Al-Wezny.

“Our hope lies with our dearest sons the peaceful demonstrators to preserve the peaceful demonstrations and isolate and detect those with hidden agendas whose job is to misrepresent the demonstrations and harm public properties.” His Eminence expressed his hope. calling on the valiant security forces to secure and protect and the demonstration zones and facilitate the arrival of the demonstrators to the places designated for demonstrations safely.
