

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem warns: Undermining state's prestige exposes country's present, future to danger

His Eminence Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, warned against compromising the prestige of the state, endangering the country's present and future.

His Eminence tweeted on May 26, 2021, "All Iraqis are equal in the criterion of legal accountability, and all decisions of state institutions shall be respected, especially the judiciary authorities, which Its resolutions shall be abided by everyone without exception so that everyone is given their respective rights, and neglecting the prestige of the state exposes the country's present and future to danger, as well as it weakens it and distorts its image before world's public opinion.
