

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem congratulates Al-Assad re-election as Syrian Arab Republic President

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, congratulated President Bashar Al-Assad on his re-election as president of the Syrian Arab Republic. His Eminence sent a letter on this occasion, hailing the success of the Syrian elections in it, and the renewal of trust in President Al-Assad in a very difficult period in the history of Syria.

His Eminence indicated that the renewal of trust in His Excellency President Al-Assad reflects the desire of the Syrian people to enforce the authority of the state and achieve security and peace, which doubles the responsibility for more national cohesion as it is a gateway to achieve security and peace of the community.

His Eminence wished Al-Assad success in his mission and the great responsibility that he must bear, and to develop the relations between Iraq and Syria in the face of challenges, and to be immune to the dangers enveloping the region.
