

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem meets organizational leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement whilst visiting Tuz Khurmatu

Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with a group of organizational leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement whilst visiting the Tuz Khurmatu district, Saturday, June 5, 2021.

His Eminence stressed the need to communicate with the public and to explain the nature of the project of the movement calling for building the state away from sectarian or factional polarization, indicating that the next phase will determine the fate of the country as a result of elections and the rise and fall of political powers.

Al-Hikma Movement has no choice but the approach of the comprehensive and able state. His Eminence added, pointing to the necessity of sorting the programs and making them as clear to the public.
