

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem receives Somali Ambassador to Baghdad

His Eminence, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, received the Somali ambassador in Baghdad, His Excellency Liban Shikh Mohamud, today, Thursday, June 24, 2021, and the two sides exchanged views on the challenges facing the region and the Arab vicinity.

His Eminence stressed the return of the Arab system to its original status. It is natural for Iraq to be strengthened by its brethren and its brethren by Iraq.

His Eminence stressed the importance of combating terrorism by combating extremist ideas, indicating that Iraq has a unique experience in combating terrorism and extremism at the military and intellectual levels through its confrontation with various types of terrorism and groups.

His Eminence referred to the need to maintain relations between the two countries under the common interest, especially in the field of fisheries and agriculture, and to exchange experiences and expertise in them.