

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem condemns Banu Kaab tribe's prince's son, Sheik Tahseen Khalid Jebr Al-Ali's Assassination

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, condemned the assassination of Sheik Tahseen Khalid Jebr Al-Ali, son of the prince of the Banu Ka'ab tribe in Maysan province. His Eminence tweeted on Monday, July 12, 2021, "We belong to Allah, and to Allah we shall return. With deep sorrow we received the news of the assassination of Sheik Tahseen Khalid Jebr Al-Ali, son of the Prince of Banu Ka'ab tribe in Maysan Province. As we condemn this heinous crime, we call on the security forces to double their efforts to detect the perpetrators and to preserve the security and lives of citizens in Maysan Province and the rest of the cities of the country, and we pray to Allah Almighty to bless the deceased with the vastness of his mercy. We extend our deepest condolences and sympathy to his family, relatives and the whole of his noble tribe.