

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem on Al-Hikma National Movement 4th founding anniversary: early future predictions for Iraqi politics & society

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, showed that the formation of Al-Hikma Movement was a futuristic prediction for the politics and society in Iraq.

His Eminence tweeted on Thursday, July 23, 2021, “on Al-Hikma National Movement 4th founding anniversary, we recall the first moments of launch and the hype and feedback of the people with a step that’s considered to be a futuristic prediction of the social and political status in Iraq.”

His Eminence illustrated that this step had the support of the political powers and the homeland partners. And on this occasion, we reiterate the vow to move forward to build Iraq as a strong capable state ruled by institutions and law, and arms under state regulation.

His Eminence affirmed that empowering youth and women to defend their rights, the mediation and balance method are strategic issues that we will not let deviate from. H.E. congratulated the leaders and the followers of Al-Hikma Movement and called them to double their efforts for a flourishing and prosperous country and people.
