

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem: Reform projects always start strange, but people quickly accept and support them

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, met a gathering of the organizational leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement in Balad District within the framework of his tour in Saladin Province, on Monday, July 26, 2021. H.E. stressed that reform projects always start bizarre, but gradually people accept them and adopt them and they become among their priorities.

His Eminence reiterated that Al-Hikma Project is a national youth project that aims to redress the youth and that their political representation must be appropriate with their population size. Paying attention to them is paying attention to the whole of society. H.E. reiterated that the movement is adhered to the slogan "A people we do not serve, we do not deserve to represent" and stressed the importance of serving the people as the philosophy of the existence of Al-Hikma National Movement, and indicated the necessity of being convinced with the project as a condition to convince people, and called on the organizations to be patient with the defamation campaigns because it is a reality experienced by all the reform movements in Iraq.
