

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakem congratulates Qatar's first legislative elections' success

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, congratulates the sisterly country Qatar, People and Leaders, on the success of their first legislative elections his Eminence tweeted on Sunday, October 3, 2021, "Congrats to the sisterly country Qatar, People and Leaders, on the success of their first legislative elections experience embodied in the elections of the Consultative Council of Qatar with a participation rate exceeding 60%. We hope that this success is a step in a march of successive success for this sisterly country."