

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem: 'Ahl Al-Bayt followers' targeting in Afghanistan is suspicious satanic plans

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, considered targeting the followers of 'Ahl Al-Bayt "PBUT" in Afghanistan as suspicious satanic that requires a stance by the international community to cease these horrific crimes.

His Eminence tweeted on Thursday, October 14, 2021, on the targeting of Sayyida Fatima "PBUH" mosque in Qandahar "Only a few days have passed since the massacre that took the lives of the followers of 'Ahl Al-Bayt "PBUT" in the mosque in Kunduz, Afghanistan, for us today to learn the painful news of yet another massacre that took place in Al-Sayyida Fatima Al-Zahra' "PBUH" mosque in Qandahar, claiming the lives of several martyrs and wounded."

His Eminence reiterated his strong condemnation of these brutal crimes and considered these acts that target the followers of 'Ahl Al-Bayt "PBUT" in this country as suspicious satanic plans that demand a serious and fast stance by the international community to stop these horrific massacres.