

Sayyid Al-Hakeem receives Sadrist Movement leader: stresses ending people's suffering by advancing service reality

His Eminence, Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, received His Eminence Sayyid Muqtada Al-Sadir, leader of Sadrist Movement Friday, November 5, 2021.

They discussed the Iraqi situation updates, the results of the recent elections, and the upcoming phase challenges. They also stressed the urgent need to place the public interest before the private interest, and end the people's suffering by elevating the service reality in Iraq. It has also been stressed that efforts must be concerted to face the upcoming challenges and that the government must achieve people's aspirations.

His Eminence, Sayyid Al-Hakeem illustrated the importance of adopting peaceful and legal ways to object to the results of the elections, and that the IHEC and the Judiciary are the ones responsible for reviewing the appeals and complaints in a serious manner that reinforces the trust of the people and the political powers in the electoral process.
