

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to self-restraint, not to lead the country to the unwanted

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, called upon the security service and the protestors to restrain themselves and prevent escalating the situation to something unwanted.

His Eminence in a statement on Friday, November 5, 2021, "With great concern, we followed the unfortunate events that took place at the Green Zone surrounding areas" H.E. reiterated the necessity of keeping the demonstrations within their peaceful framework, urging all parties to place the national interest above all else during this delicate situation, and also renewing his call upon the IHEC and the Judicial institution to review the appeals in a serious manner and do just to the objecting powers
