

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls for immediate intervention over food prices increase

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, called the government to address food prices increase.

H.E. tweeted on Sunday, November 14, 2021, "Amidst the remarkable increase of food and consumer goods prices, which directly impact people's lives. We call the government to address this issue through immediate intervention and price monitoring. Now that oil prices have risen, expanding its options and numerous radical solutions, as this issue places a huge burden on the people's shoulders, especially those of which with low-income."