

Sayyid Al-Hakeem renews stance on normalization rejection, affirms Palestinians' right to a sovereign state

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, renewed his position to reject normalizing with the usurping entity and affirmed the Palestinian peoples' right to enjoy a sovereign state.

His Eminence said on the International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People on Monday, 29 November 2021, "To celebrate this day consolidates the truth of the cause of these steadfast people is a just and a humanitarian cause. One that is firmly planted in the Arabic, Islamic, and humanitarian consciences, and is an imprescriptible right. The oppressed Palestinian people have the absolute right to live in their land, inherit history, and ensure the future of their children. This usurped right can not be retained unless their just cause triumphs, stand by its cause Arab, Islamic and International, through internal Palestinian solidarity, directing the compass to confront the Israeli entity, and overcoming internal disputes."

His Eminence affirmed that Iraq, with its religious authority, the zealous people, components, and sects advocate the Palestinian cause and reject the attempts to steal their nationality, lands, and confiscate their freedom and dignity.
