

Sayyid Al-Hakeem to Spanish Ambassador: Political crisis is solvable if the will to concede is available

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, said that the political crisis is solvable if everyone concedes to Iraq and favors the supreme national interest.

His Eminence illustrated that the recent parliamentary elections produced obvious confusion in the political arena due to the imbalance.

His Eminence stressed during receiving the Spanish Ambassador to Baghdad, His Excellency Pedro Martinez, The importance of developing ties between Baghdad and Madrid and investing Spanish companies, whose development and presence in Iraq we commend. in addition to the developments of the regional and international situation.