

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to observe oppressed rights, advocate wronged

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, called to observe the rights of the oppressed and advocate the wronged.

His Eminence tweeted on Friday, December 10, 2021, “The International Day of Human Rights is an open call to political systems and conscientious people to observe the right of every oppressed on the face of the planet, advocate every wronged, and allow freedom of expression.”

His Eminence emphasized the need for the international community and its humanitarian organization to consolidate the basis of justice and equality among human beings. As well as preventing other religions, races, ethnicities, and nationalities from being subjected to violence and oppression, and that justice, equality, compassion, and fairness prevail in all parts of the world.
