

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to unify Feylis, redress Feyli Kurds

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, pointed to the common history and historical connection with the Feyli Kurds and the oppression of the genuine component while meeting several members of the Iraqi Alliance for Feyli Kurds, Saturday, December 11, 2021, and stressed the importance of not lingering in the past and using its lessons in building the present and future.

His Eminence renewed his position in calling for the unification of the Feylis and warned against abusing these components' rights through the election's quota.

His Eminence stated that the Feylis represent an important link between the Shiite and Kurdish components, they also help preserve the cohesion of the Iraqi component. In Addition, H.E. discussed the developments of the political affairs in Iraq, the results of the elections, and the challenges of the upcoming stage after listening to their valuable statements.
