

Sayyid Al-Hakeem receives Zebari, calls to form stable & solid equation government

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, received the delegation of the Kurdistan Democratic Party headed by Dr. Hoshyar Zebari on Monday, December 13, 2021, where they discussed the developments of the political scene in Iraq and the region, the results of the recent election, and the confusion its lead to due to the lack of balance in most of Iraqi National fields. In addition to discussing the challenges facing Iraq in the upcoming stage.

His Eminence called the Federal Court to consider the appeals and complaints as it's in the best interest of winners and objectors. The more the consideration was serious and transparent, the more the status of the winners of all political blocs will be consolidated.

His Eminence has illustrated the importance of the upcoming phase and its difficulty. and warned everyone against it before the elections if the outcome wasn't a balanced equation. His Eminence held everyone responsible to compromise for the sake of the higher national interest of the country that will benefit all.

Moreover, His Eminence stated that the next government is up to significant tasks at the service, economic, social, and political levels. Therefore, the government must be formed in accordance with a steady and solid equation, capable of achieving executive and legislative balance.
