

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls government institutions to mobilize capabilities over floods to relieve families

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, stated on Friday, 17 December 2021, "With great concern and solidarity, we follow the news of the floods sweeping areas in Kurdistan and northern provinces, causing numerous victims and damages to properties." His Eminence demanded government institutions to mobilize capabilities to aid the affected and minimize losses and make sure to utilize surplus water to benefit Iraq, especially with the recent warning against possible water shortages Iraq might face.
