

Sayyid Al-Hakeem lauds Iraqi Stadiums ban lift efforts

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, lauded the efforts that were exerted to lift the ban of the Iraqi stadiums.

His Eminence tweeted on 27 February 2022, “By lifting the ban for all Iraqi stadiums and pumping the life back into the pitch, we can only congratulate our sports audience and our genuine people, also, we laude all of the efforts that were exerted, especially by the Minister of Youth and Sports, the Iraqi Football Association, and the Sports audience for making this file a success and reclaiming the Iraqi long-deprived right.”

His Eminence called upon the relevant authorities to maintain this accomplishment and present a genuine image for Iraq through the highest levels of organization and management of matches. As football is one of the approaches of converging people.
