

Sayyid Al-Hakeem to Algerian Ambassador: Iraq's political crisis is solvable if the will is available

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with the Ambassador of the Republic of Algeria, Mr. Belkacem Mahmoudi, Saturday morning, 26/3/2022, and discussed with him the latest developments in the political situation in Iraq and the region, and the bilateral relations between the two countries and ways to strengthen them to serve the interests of the two brotherly countries and peoples.

His Eminence stressed the importance of developing bilateral relations in the political, economic, and social fields and coordinating positions on subjects of common interest, indicating that Iraq offers many promising opportunities and is open to all to serve its interests and preserve its sovereignty.

His Eminence also stressed that the current crisis in Iraq is solvable if the political powers had the will for a solution and the public interest prevails over private interests. Reiterating his position of not participating in the upcoming government and investing in our relations to converge the views of the political factions.
