

Sayyid Al-Hakeem discusses Iraq, region political scene developments with British, Russian ambassadors, separately

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with the Russian Ambassador to Baghdad, Mr. Elbrus Kutrashev and the British Ambassador, Mark Bryson, separately on Sunday 27/3/2022, and discussed the developments of the Iraqi, regional and international political scenes, the impact of international developments on the security and safety of countries in the world, and how to dismantle crises through Serious dialogue to enable the peoples of the region and the world to enjoy the benefits of their countries, stressing the importance of the relationship between Russia, Britain and Iraq and ways to develop them. The solution is available if everyone had the will and give priority to public interests over private and factional interests.
