

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls on government institutions leaders to market achievements, ease procedures, adopt e-government

In his series of Ramadan meetings and during the iftar banquet held in their honor, Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met in his office in Baghdad a genuine group of government officials (undersecretaries of ministries, director generals, some security leaders, and former representatives) on Tuesday 12/4/2022, and after listening to their valuable interventions, in his speech, His Eminence stressed the importance of highlighting the service aspect provided by state institutions, and the need to pay attention to the media and marketing aspects to address the state of frustration and generalize the negatives and self-flagellation, indicating the restructuring of some institutions by integration and activation.

His Eminence called for governance and the use of modern administrative means, illustrating that state institutions represent the link between the citizen and the political system. H.E. pointed to the nature of the positive effects of serving citizens and the worldly and hereafter gains of the official serving his people.

His Eminence said that it is necessary to reform the legal environment, search for a success story, and turn the positives into a public opinion issue, stressing the importance of working on marketing achievements and easing procedures.
