

Sayyid Al-Hakeem praises awareness-makers from publishing houses, calls to face frustration

In his meeting with “Enki” Foundation for Studies on Wednesday 13/4/2022, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, praised the role of knowledge-makers in Iraq represented by Iraqi publishing houses and their role in raising the level of awareness of the Iraqi citizen, calling to face the frustrations and negative generalizations.

His Eminence stressed the importance of publishing houses in the life of society and the creation of community awareness, pointing to the nature of political changes and the state of political obstruction that the country is undergoing, and the role of Al-Hikma in contributing to dismantling this obstruction by communicating with all parties to serve the public interest. His Eminence renewed his call for balance in achieving the national majority, and said that preserving the status of the components is a basic condition in achieving stability, and then creating the appropriate atmosphere to provide services to citizens and job opportunities.
