

Sayyid Al-Hakeem condemns bombing Afghanistan's Hazara community

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, condemned the bombings that targeted the Hazara sect in the Afghan capital, Kabul.

His Eminence tweeted, "In the midst of the holy month once again, the hand of dark terrorism extends to the Shiite Hazara sect in Afghanistan within the series of targeting the followers of Ahl Al-Bayt "PBUT". This time they targeted schools for boys with three bombings in the center of the capital, Kabul."

His Eminence expressed his condemnation of these recurring acts of aggression and urged the international community to aid the Afghani people and not maintain passive attitudes towards these violations. H.E. also expressed sympathy and sent condolences to the Muslim Afghan people, and prayed to Allah to have mercy on the martyrs and grant the dress of healing for the wounded.
