His Eminence tweeted on 13/5/2022, "Almost continuously, the series of targeting places of worship in Afghanistan by obscurantist gangs continues and amid the government's inability to reduce them and protect the safe citizens there, as these tragedies were repeated today after a terrorist attack affected a mosque for the followers of Ahl Al-Bayt "PBUT" while performing Friday prayers in the center of the capital, Kabul."

His Eminence reiterated his call to the international community to compel the Afghan government to protect all its citizens, regardless of their races, sects, and nationalities.
