

Sayyid Al-Hakeem to Al-Hikma Media Leaders: Your campaign is a missionary & educational characterized by values & principles

During his meeting with several media leaders in Al-Hikma National Movement on 28/5/2022, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, expressed his condolences on the anniversary of the martyrdom of Imam Jaafar bin Mohammed Al-Sadiq "PBUH", indicating the nature of the role played by Imam Al-Sadiq in Islamic structures and the consolidation of sound doctrine.

His Eminence said that Al-Hikma possesses a project, a logic, a history, and a balance of relations that make it one of the safety valves in this country, calling for pride in this fact and working to develop and root it, pointing out that the doors of wisdom are open to all visions and propositions that agree with us or differ in some way.

His Eminence called for credibility, transparency, and clarity in presenting matters without exaggeration, with the importance of contributing to the making of public opinion, indicating the importance of clarifying the position of Al-Hikma and the rate of exchanging information and presenting it with a commitment to accuracy and objectivity. While also paying attention to the direction of the public and their concerns, adding that the mission of the media is missionary and educational that is characterized by values, principles, flexibility, openness, and preaching. H.E. stressed the cumulative and developing skills through training and openness to the other and focusing on social communication, oral media, and indirect media, emphasizing the scrutiny of information and the removal of frustration and victory for religious and national symbols and everything positive, as the media of Al-Hikma is the media of life.
