

Sayyid Al-Hakeem recalls Sect Leader, Imam Muhsin Al-Hakeem's "MASHS" Biography on passing anniversary

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, recalled the biography of his grandfather, Imam Muhsin Al-Hakeem, the leader of the sect, on the anniversary of his passing. His Eminence tweeted on 1/6/2022, "On the painful anniversary of his passing, we remember the bright stations from the book of the sect leader, our grandfather, Imam Sayyid Muhsin Al-Hakeem "May his honorable soul be sanctified" and his immortal exploits in consciences, as His Eminence devoted most of his life to the path of science, jihad, knowledge, and guidance. His national and sacrificial stances are witnessed by the fields of jihad defending the religion, the homeland, and the sanctities. His knowledge stances are uncountable, on top of which was sending the missionaries and messengers to all Iraqi provinces, cities, districts, and villages, as well as establishing and supporting dozens of offices in them.

Peace be upon him the day he was born, the day he departed, and the day he will be resurrected before Allah in satisfaction."
