

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to end political differences, to form national service government

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a group of sheiks and dignitaries of Al-Aseeb tribe, its youth, and competencies, in the great guest-place of Sheik Mishaal Al-Jabr Al-Damagh on 18/6/2022, praising the role of the genuine Iraqi tribes.

His Eminence stressed Iraq's need for unity, to contain the situation and to form a national service government capable of providing services and being the link between the political system and the public. In his speech, H.E. said that Iraq has overcome many ordeals and crises, and in every crisis, it emerges stronger and more coherent, including the ordeal of terrorism, which made Iraq and its security institutions a destination for all to confront terrorist groups until it became a source of these experiences.

His Eminence explained Iraq's need for a strong and honest government that takes care of priorities, the development of productive sectors, and the diversity of sources of income such as the agricultural, industrial, tourism, and investment sectors, calling to reduce crises, unity of word and an end to rivalries, holding everyone the responsibility of victory for Iraq, for Iraq is the trust of its people and its political and social leaders.
