

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: political crisis pressures daily citizen's livelihood, everyone to rely on solutions congruent to the constitution and law

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, confirmed that Kirkuk is a miniature Iraq, indicating that this requires all its components to cooperate to maintain peaceful coexistence.

While His Eminence called, during a meeting with the head of the Turkmen Front, Mr. Hasan Toran on Sunday, 18/9/2022, all social events from all components to preserve the achievement of civil peace in Kirkuk, and regarding developments in the political situation, H.E. renewed his position by calling for the formulation of a political equation capable of containing everyone and involving them in national decision-making, and the importance of dialogue as the only way to overcome differences, solve problems and reassure the Iraqi citizen.

H.E. pointed out that the political crisis is heavily pressuring the daily life of the citizen and his living reality, this requires everyone to seek the public interest and to sit at the solution table based on the constitution and the law.
