

Sayyid Al-Hakeem discusses Kirkuk's reality, to respect components' privacy with Turan

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of the National Wisdom Movement, met Mr. Hassan Turan, head of the Turkmen Front on 19/10/2022, and stressed the importance of components in Iraqi society, and respect for privacy within the framework of the national identity, reiterating his call to represent it in the upcoming government, indicating the necessity of forming it and sustaining dialogue between the political parties, listening to the opposition and taking their observations and visions into consideration, while also renewing that Kirkuk is a miniature Iraq, and success in it is a success throughout Iraq.

His Eminence illustrated the importance of managing diversity in Iraq and said that Iraq's advantage in its diversity and components is Iraq's bridge to the peoples of the world. H.E. also praised the sacrifices of the Turkmen and their role in fighting dictatorship and confronting terrorism.
