

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to build a prosperous future for people through United Nations Charter

Mr. Ammar al-Hakim, head of the National Wisdom Movement, called to introduce people to the goals, provisions, and principles of the United Nations Charter. His Eminence tweeted on United Nations Day on 24/10/2022, "United Nations Day is an occasion to grasp the importance of this global organization and its prominent role as a high ceiling that brings together the peoples of the earth under its banner, to resolve conflicts and solve problems in a world being eaten by wars and turmoiled with conflicts, disputes, interests, terrorism, and unrest.

The occasion is also an opportunity to introduce the purposes and provisions of the Charter of the United Nations and its principles that have been the compass of the organization's work over the past years of its life to implement sustainable development programs and relief during natural disasters and other humanitarian activities."

H.E. expressed his support for the United Nations to draft the features of a bright future for the peoples of the world, we hope that it will issue tougher resolutions to eliminate the cries of hatred, animosity, discrimination, and terrorism and spread the spirit of tolerance among human beings.
