

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem calls Japan to contribute to building Iraq

Sayyid Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, affirmed that Japan is important to Iraq, its active presence on the economic side is needed to invest in the major opportunities that Iraq presents, especially with Japanese companies' good reputation that lingers in the mind of the Iraqi citizen.

During H.E's meeting with the Ambassador of Japan, His Excellency Futoshi Matsumoto on 9/11/2022, H.E. illustrated that the current government is a national service government that possesses the elements of success, such as financial abundance, parliamentary coverage, regional and international support, and security stability. H.E. affirmed the importance of supporting this government in the field of service provision and combating corruption. Moreover, H.E. listened to His Excellency on his country's vision that supports the government and its preparations to contribute to building and constructing.