

Sayyid Al-Hakeem receives Primate of Armenian Orthodox of Iraq, renews call to manage diversity

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met the Primate of the Armenian Diocese of Iraq, Archimandrite Oshagan Gulgulian, and the accompanying delegation on 30/11/2022. His Eminence congratulated Archimandrite Oshagan for winning the elections to lead the sect in Iraq, renewing his call to invest in Iraq's diversity by managing it correctly, and adopting the Iraqi components as a bridge to communicate with the countries and peoples of the world.

His Eminence discussed with the Primate of the Armenian Diocese the social reality in Iraq, and the reality of the Christian component, considering the Christian component as a qualitative addition to the Iraqi society, it can't be measured by numbers, it can only be measured by its social value and rich culture.
